Jill Knight : Civil Service Rifles in the Great War before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Civil Service Rifles in the Great War:

Made up entirely of volunteer civil servants and their friends and despite the Government's reluctance to release them, the Prince of Wales' Own Civil Service Rifles fought with distinction at Loos, the Somme, Messines, Cambrai, Salonika and Palestine. As casualties mounted, the Rifles' spirit and loyalties strengthened. The Author draws on numerous personal accounts, graphically written, as well as official records.

About the Author Jill Knight is an author and historian.
