Dian Zillner : Collectible Coloring Books before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Collectible Coloring Books:

Coloring books are a hot new field just now being discovered by many collectors. This beautiful book includes 500 full color photographs of coloring books published during the last 100 years. A history of coloring books, as well as information on the subjects of each of the books is also included. The fields of special interest covered include: television, movies, personalities, dolls, paper dolls, advertising, comics, cartoons, Disney, and history.

About the AuthorDian Zillner has been a collector of coloring books for over five years. She has written numerous articles on the subject as well as articles on dolls and paper dolls. Her first book, Hollywood Collectibles, was published in 1991. Price guide included.
