Not bad, but the author fails to entertain the counterfactualBy Nicholas D FeltenNot bad, but the author fails to entertain the counterfactual: what if Duke had cheated as systematically as its light-blue neighbor a few miles down 15-501? Would a middle-of-the-road football program have been theirs for the taking as was the case at UNC?

You'll not find a more comprehensive volume detailing Duke University's postseason bowl history than this volume by prominent Blue Devil alum Jean Luc Fromage, III. It's all here -- the years of bowl eligibility, the players, the coaches, the strategies that yielded results that not even the most pessimistic among us could have predicted.
