The recipients of the postcards really enjoyed the images. Made of sturdy card stock with lots of room for writing your message AND the address of where it's going to! Cards are easily detachable! A great value for the price! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Fun vintage style assortment from a great company By C. A. McMartin What a great assortment! I had fun picking the appropriate postcard for my friends that do not celebrate Christmas and those that get New Year's wish in addition to a holiday card. Some are amusing, some are sweet. The card stock is sturdy and I read the reviews about the perforations so as soon as I received them I tore them all out. None ripped and it wasn't that big of a deal. The slight perforation "chads" (for want of a better word) are on the edge but I ran my finger over them and they smoothed out. The cards are big enough to really write a message. 4.75 by 6 5/8". These should last me for years and the price is right. 5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. These are perfect to send at New Year's time to the people ... By Trixie Dallas These are perfect to send at New Year's time to the people who sent you Xmas cards when you weren't expecting it.

In the late 19th and early 20th century, postcard publishing flourished. Many millions of postcards were sent each year, and buyers could choose among a seemingly limitless variety of designs. Holidays were of course a favorite theme, resulting in some wonderful images, and we think many of them are still worth remembering and sending to friends, or simply treasured for their beauty. New Year's Eve presented a difficult challenge to artists, as evidenced by the wide variety of images we found in our large collection of vintage New Year's Eve postcards, some seemingly having little to do with New Year's Eve. The selection of thirty images contained in Happy New Year Postcard Book represents the best of postcard's golden era: champagne, clocks, brooms sweeping away the old year, bells ringing, celebration, and of course an Father Time receding and a baby representing the New Year arriving.
